Our History

Pensacola Little Theatre dates back to 1926 and the formation of the Pensacola Civic Players. Their goal was to provide quality entertainment created by local theatre enthusiasts.

Today, we still aim to entertain a broad audience and to give actors and technicians in our community a creative outlet. To that end, PLT produces nearly two dozen plays and musicals each season, ranging from Shakespeare classics to Broadway hits to original productions.

Our mission has also broadened to encompass education and outreach. PLT offers theatre classes and summer camps, performs for local schools and community centers, and provides inexpensive ticket options for low-income families. We also work with the Pensacola Boys Base Outreach Program, Lakeview Center's Families First, and other organizations that serve at-risk youth.

Pensacola Little Theatre is a vibrant and dynamic part of the Bay area arts community. We invite you to be a part of our growing organization. To learn more about how you can participate as a patron, volunteer, or financial supporter, call 850.434.0257 or visit www.PensacolaLittleTheatre.com.
